

SUDELEY CASTLE & GARDENS

Kings, Queens and nobleman have had their lives and histories intertwined with Sudeley Castle, so where better to create your own history than at 'the most romantic castle in England'.

Nestled within a picturesque Cotswold valley, surrounded by wooded rolling hills and breath-taking views, Sudeley Castle is more than just a venue. When you choose to marry at Sudeley Castle you will find yourself standing in the footprints of nearly 1,000 years of history looking ahead to a lifetime of joy and wonderful memories.

If you haven't done so already, we recommend that you take a few minutes to view Sudeley Castle and the estate in all its beauty:

Choosing to hold your wedding at Sudeley Castle is only the first step. We would be delighted to host you, your family, and friends within any combination of our beautiful spaces.

Celebrations within the castle itself can be held inside our Medieval Banqueting Hall and Terrace Pavilion. Marquees and gazebo's can be placed on our stunning lawns, nestled amongst award-winning gardens and romantic ruins.

Your wedding ceremony is a deeply personal experience. Whether you choose a religious, non-religious or civil ceremony we are truly delighted to be able to offer you some of the most special and unique settings to be found.

St Mary's Chapel sits serenely at the heart of our gardens. The resting place of Katherine Parr, last wife of King Henry VIII, St Mary's offers to you a place of history, community and family. A place where you can celebrate your marriage, hold a blessing, or reaffirm your vows.

For a non-religious or civil ceremony, the Dent-Brocklehurst family are pleased to be able to offer you the use of their Library. Ceremonies can also be held within the Medieval Banqueting Hall and Terrace Pavilion; when you come to visit Sudeley Castle please take the time to discuss your wishes with us.
